

San Juan County Advisory Boards, Committees & Commissions Application Form

Thank you for your interest in serving San Juan County. Citizen advisory committees provide a vital link between the services the County is required to provide and the citizens that receive services. Members to advisory committees are appointed by the County Council as a whole, and not by individual Council members. Your responses to questions on this application will be used to guide the Council in their selection. Please use additional sheets to respond to questions you feel need additional comment. The questions regarding potential conflict of interest will not disqualify anyone from service, however, it is necessary to identify possible conflicts.

Please be aware that once submitted all information on the form becomes public information, with the exception of the following: Residential addresses, residential telephone numbers, personal wireless telephone numbers and personal electronic mail addresses.

Policy Regarding appointments to county advisory committees

The County Council's policy regarding the process of appointment of members to county advisory committees/boards/commissions is as follows;

1. All vacancies and positions with expiring terms on county committees will be advertised in local media and on the county website. Such advertisements will be posted at least two weeks prior to Council appointments to fill any vacancies.
2. All candidates for committee appointments will be San Juan County voters. This requirement can be waived by the Council when appropriate.
3. Committees may make recommendations to the Council for new appointments and reappointments. However, the Council will consider all applicants for vacancies.
4. Committee members whose terms will expire may reapply for appointment. Committees may also make recommendations to the Council for reappointments. However, reappointments will not be automatic or assumed, as the Council will consider all applicants for vacancies.
