

SAN JUAN COUNTY WASHINGTON

Inmate Guide to Voting

Protecting the Voting Rights of Americans Detained While Awaiting Trial

- Inmates who have not been convicted of a felony, even if in custody, continue to have the right to vote.
- If you were convicted of a felony in a Washington State court, your right to vote is restored automatically once you are no longer serving a sentence of total confinement in prison.
- If you were convicted of a felony in another state or federal court, your right to vote is restored automatically as long as you are no longer serving a sentence of total confinement in prison.
- You do not lose the right to vote for a misdemeanor conviction or a conviction in juvenile court.
- You do not need a certificate of discharge (COD) to have your voting rights restored.
- Once your right is restored, you must re-register to vote to receive a ballot.

Register and vote in 4 easy steps!

1	Complete a Voter Registration Form	You must provide a residential address that you consider your home address in order for us to assign your ballot to a precinct. Do not list the San Juan County Sheriff's Office as your physical or mailing address.
2	Complete a Ballot Request Form	Ballots are available 18 days prior to each election. If you request a ballot during an election, and you are an eligible voter, your ballot will be delivered to you at the San Juan County Sheriff's Office during office hours Monday – Friday, 8:30 AM to 4:30 PM only.
3	Submit both forms to a Voting Liaison	The Voting Liaison will send your Voter Registration and Ballot Request forms to the Elections Office for processing. If you are eligible, a Voter ID card and a ballot will be delivered to you at the San Juan County Sheriff's Office.
4	Vote and return your ballot	To vote: Follow the instructions included with your ballot packet. To return: Inmates are responsible for meeting election deadlines. Return your ballot to the Voting Liaison in time to deliver to Elections staff no later than 8:00 PM Election Day.

Future ballots will be mailed to the mailing address provided on the Voter Registration form unless you complete and return a Ballot Request Form with a change of address.

You can update your voter registration information and check the status of your ballot at votewa.gov.

PROCEDURES

Voting Liaison

The San Juan County Sheriff's Office agrees to appoint a Voting Liaison who shall be responsible for assisting inmates who have requested to vote and communicating those requests to Elections.

Registering to Vote

The Elections Office shall supply the Sheriff's Office with Washington State Voter Registration Forms during the 18-day voting period. The Elections Office shall notify the Voting Liaison via email of upcoming election dates and voter registration deadlines. An inmate who is eligible to vote and requests to register shall be given a Voter Registration Form. If the inmate completes the form and returns it to the Sheriff's Voting Liaison, the Liaison shall immediately forward the form to Elections via inter-office mail or, on Elections Day or the day before, shall contact Elections to retrieve the Voter Registration Form.

When Voter Registration Forms are received from the Sheriff's Office, Elections shall process the registrations as soon as practicable and print an on-demand voter ID card that will be delivered to the Voting Liaison.

Requesting a Ballot

An inmate who will be in custody during the 18-day voting period during an election and requests to vote shall complete a Ballot Request Form (see below). The completed form shall be submitted to the Voting Liaison, who will forward the application to Elections via inter-office mail or email.

Upon receipt of a Ballot Request Form, Elections staff shall, as soon as practicable, process the request and issue the inmate a ballot, if the requestor is a registered voter in San Juan County. The ballot shall be delivered to the Sheriff's Office for the Voting Liaison to deliver to the inmate.

If the ballot request is denied, Elections Staff shall document the reason for the denial on the Ballot Request Form and email a copy of the form to the Voting Liaison to inform the inmate.

Voting

All ballots received by the Sheriff's Office shall be delivered to inmates in a timely manner to ensure compliance with the inmate's right to vote in accordance with Washington State's voting requirements. Once the ballot has been delivered to the inmate, it shall be the responsibility of the inmate to return the ballot to the Voting Liaison. The Voting Liaison shall contact the Elections Office to retrieve the voted ballot.

An inmate with a sight impairment who will be in custody during the 18-days preceding and including Election Day and who requests to vote shall be offered the opportunity to use the County's Accessible Voting Unit (AVU). A deputy shall escort the inmate to the Elections Office to vote on the AVU between 8:30 AM and 4:30 PM, Monday through Friday.
