

A Proclamation in Celebration of National Volunteer Month

WHEREAS, April is designated as National Volunteer Month, and

WHEREAS, San Juan County volunteers are essential partners in every aspect of our organization's ability to serve our community supporting our mission, and

WHEREAS, their contributions encompass a broad range of needs across the County, including serving as stewards of our parks and natural areas, child advocates in our courts, public health officers in the health department, advisory and steering committee members ensuring community perspectives are part of our decision-making processes, board members providing advocacy and vital fund-development, and as individuals and groups who provide support to our programs throughout our community; and,

WHEREAS, more than 400 community members invested over 11,500 reported volunteer hours in the last year, providing a profound impact on the quality of our services, the health of our environment, and the well-being of our community; and,

WHEREAS, the time, talents and inspiration of our volunteers provide indispensable support to our County employees and play a vital role in our operation;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the San Juan County Council, hereby recognize and celebrate April as National Volunteer Month and extend our deepest appreciation to all in our community who participate in caring for our fellow islanders, natural resources, and County at large.

The foregoing proclamation was adopted by the San Juan County Council at a regularly scheduled meeting held on April 18, 2023.
