The moving party shall arrange the hearing after conferring with opposing counsel or a self-represented party with regard to conflicts. Dispositive motions and show cause hearings in unlawful detainer proceedings require a special set hearing and shall not be noted on the Civil Law and Motion Calendar.

(h) Courtesy Copies for Judge. A copy of all motions, briefs, affidavits and declarations, and other documentary evidence to be considered by the court, as well as a proposed order(s), shall be provided to the judge assigned to preside over the trial or hearing at the same time as such documents or documentary evidence are filed.

(1) Identifying the Hearing. Parties shall indicate the date and time of the hearing on the courtesy copies either by indicating it in the upper right-hand corner of the first page of each courtesy copy, or by including in the body of the email sending such documents to the Superior Court Administrator the date and time of the associated hearing.

(2) Delivery. Hard copies of courtesy copies may be mailed to Superior Court Administration or left for the Superior Court Administrator: (a) in the Clerk’s Office; (b) in the box outside the Superior Court Administration Office; or (c) in the Clerk/Superior Court secure drop box outside of the Sheriff’s Office at the Courthouse. (3) Courtesy Copies Are Discarded. Courtesy copies are discarded after ten (10) days from the assigned hearing date, unless counsel or a self-represented party notify the Superior Court Administrator of a new hearing date and request that the courtesy copies be retained. If either party fails to do so, it will be the responsibility of counsel or a self-represented party to provide new courtesy copies to the court as provided herein.

(4) Proposed Orders. Courtesy copies of proposed orders shall be submitted electronically to Superior Court Administration in Word version in advance of the hearing. LCR 9. SPECIAL MATTERS: MOTIONS AND PLEADINGS

(a) – (l) No Local Rules

(m) Motions to Shorten Time. Motions to shorten time may be noted to be heard at the same time as the underlying motion, or in advance, at the discretion of the party/attorney. Motions to shorten time for a hearing shall be granted only upon: (1) agreement of the parties; (2) good cause shown that harm will occur if the motion is not heard until the required notice period has elapsed; or (3) other good cause determination by the Court including the efficient use of judicial resources. The party requesting an order to shorten time shall give verbal and written notice as soon as possible to opposing parties regardless of when pleadings are prepared and provided. Such motions shall contain a written certification that self-represented parties or attorneys were notified of the time and place of requesting the order to shorten time, or the reasons why such notice was not given. The court may impose terms, including an award of attorney fees, where the court later finds there was insufficient need for shortening time. See also, LCR 5(a)(1).

(n) Motions to File Overlength Brief/Declaration. Motions requesting permission to file an overlength brief or declaration may be noted without oral argument, and may be filed five (5) court days in advance of the filing deadline of the document at issue, with any opposition filed two (2) court days in advance of the deadline and any reply filed one (1) court day in advance of the deadline. The motion and note for motion should reference the deadline for filing of the related document for clarity.

(3) Tabs. There shall be no tabs on filed documents. Exhibits or sections may be denoted or divided by a separator page. Any tabs included in a filed document will be discarded by the Clerk without notice to the party/counsel. Judge's courtesy copies may contain tabs for ease of reference. If tabs are included in courtesy copies, they should also be included in copies provided to opposing parties/counsel.

(4) Typing/Color Photographs. All court documents submitted for filing must be typed or printed legibly using black or dark blue ink. Color photographs may not be filed because they do not produce legible scanned images. Color copies of photos may be provided to the Judge in courtesy copies, but if color copies are provided, identical color copies shall be provided to opposing parties/counsel.

(5) Conformed Copies. Court documents served on opposing counsel or a self-represented party shall be fully conformed as to signatures, dates signed, date filed if known, and all other information as it appears on the filed original. The above page limits do not apply to the following: (1) exhibits attached to declarations; (2) financial declarations in family law cases; (3) mandatory/pattern forms; or (4) expert reports or evaluations (including GAL or Court Visitor reports).

While the page limits do not apply to exhibits, parties shall not file exhibits such as financial records, text messages, discovery responses, or deposition transcripts that are not specifically referenced in the declarations or briefing filed with the Court.

(7) Clerk's Action Required. Parties must indicate in the caption of any document requiring the County Clerk to calendar a hearing or otherwise take an action: "Clerk's Action Required."

(9) Unsuitable Materials Filed as Pleadings or Documents. The format requirements of GR 14 shall apply to motions and attachments to pleadings and other papers filed with the clerk. Any item presented to and accepted by the clerk for filing that does not comply with GR 14 and is not a scannable document, such as compact disks, digital video disks, audio tapes, thumb drives, and similar devices containing recorded information, as well as oversized documents, shall be treated as an exhibit and may be converted to an exhibit without further order of the court. In order to make such recorded information part of the permanent court record, they must be transcribed by the filing party and filed as a document in paper format. Filed exhibits are not retained as part of the permanent record and are eligible for destruction pursuant to RCW 36.23.070. The clerk has the authority to reject filings that are not presented in proper form required by rules or practices pursuant to CR 5(e) and GR 14.

(d) Form of Signature. "Signing" a document is defined by RCW 5.50.010(3). Notwithstanding any provision of GR 30 to the contrary, a fax, scan, or electronic signature shall have the same force and effect as an original or ink signature on filed documents. "Electronic signature" is defined by RCW 1.80.010 to mean: "an electronic sound, symbol, or process attached to or logically associated with a record and executed or adopted by a person with the intent to sign the record." LCR 40. ASSIGNMENT OF CASES

(a) (No Local Rules)

(b) Methods.

(1) Trial Assignment Calendar. The trial assignment calendar is an administrative calendar for Court Administration and occurs every Tuesday. The trial assignment calendar has no hearing at which parties or counsel can appear.

(2) Note for Trial Assignment. All notes for trial assignment on contested cases shall, in addition to counsel's or a self-represented party's estimate of time needed for trial, indicate the issues which counsel or the self-represented party believe will be in dispute, and shall contain the names and addresses of all attorneys, guardians ad litem, or self-represented parties. Counsel and self-represented parties shall certify that the issues are joined. If opposing counsel or self-represented parties dispute that the issues are joined or disagree with the statement of issues, do not believe the case is yet ready for trial, or have any other objection to the information contained in the Notice of Trial Assignment, opposing counsel or the self-represented parties shall, prior to the trial assignment date, file and serve an Objection to the Notice of Trial Assignment and note the matter for hearing on the appropriate motion calendar. This will remove the matter from the Superior Court Administrator's trial assignment docket. Counsel and self-represented parties are urged to request sufficient time for these matters. Overestimation is preferred to underestimation of time needed. The form of the Note for Trial Assignment is set forth in Appendix C. Time shall be computed as set forth in Civil Rule 6 and LCR 6 herein.

(3) Conflict Dates. Counsel shall file a Notice of Conflict Dates with the Clerk of the court and provide a copy to the Court Administrator on or before 9 a.m. of the date set for trial assignment. Conflict dates shall be limited to previously scheduled vacations and trial dates. The form of the Notice of Conflict Dates is set forth in Appendix D.

(4) Trial Date Assignment. The Superior Court Administrator will assign cases a specific trial date and notify the parties by mail and/or e-mail of such date. If more than one matter is set for trial for the same day, counsel and self-represented parties shall be prepared for trial on the date set regardless of the order in which the cases are set.

(c) Preferences. All matters are subject to the established rule that criminal cases, juvenile proceedings, and civil proceedings entitled to priority settings take precedence over all other matters and may at times cause postponement of lesser prioritized cases.

(d) (No Local Rules)

(e) Continuances. A trial date may be stricken or continued by agreement of the parties at any time upon presentation of an order to the court. A motion to continue a trial shall be made in writing and shall be noted for consideration on or before the readiness hearing. The Court will only consider a motion for continuance noted for consideration after the readiness hearing if good cause is established that the motion could not have been brought sooner. A motion to continue a trial on the ground of the absence of evidence shall only be made upon declaration showing the materiality of the evidence expected to be obtained, and that due diligence has been used to procure it. The court may also require the moving party to state upon declaration the evidence which they expect to obtain; and if the adverse party admits that such evidence would be given, and that it be considered as actually given in the trial, or offered and overruled as improper, the trial shall not be continued. The court, upon its allowance of the motion, may impose terms or conditions upon the moving party.

(f) (No Local Rules)

(g) Settlement of Cases Set for Trial. Notice shall be given immediately to the Superior Court Administrator if any case which has been assigned a trial date is settled or will not be tried for any reason whatsoever. If this rule is violated and the court incurs unnecessary expenses, such as jury expenses, the court may, in its discretion, assess such costs to the parties.

(h) Confirmation of Trials. It shall be the responsibility of the parties to confirm that their trial will proceed on the scheduled trial date. Confirmation shall be made by telephone to the Superior Court Administrator's office (360) 370-7480 no earlier than seven (7) or later than two (2) court days prior to the scheduled trial date.

If a party submits more than 50 exhibits, the exhibits must be submitted by 12:00 noon two court days before trial in order to allow additional time for marking. If a party intends to offer fewer than ten (10) exhibits in their case in chief, the shall submit their original exhibits as set forth above at least one (1) hour before the start of trial. Each set of exhibits shall be submitted to the Clerk with an exhibit list in hard copy and electronic Word version prepared by the submitting party, on the Clerk's form, Appendix E. The party should include pre-assigned numbers as described above, as well as the description of the exhibit that party intends the Clerk to use on the master exhibit list. Please consider when preparing exhibits that the Clerk will mark them in the lower right corner with a 1" by 3" label.
- (3) Exhibits Filed Under Seal. Consistent with General Rule (GR) 22, financial source documents, personal healthcare records, guardian ad litem (GAL)/parenting evaluator reports, and other reports containing confidential information as defined by GR 22 shall be submitted with the mandatory cover sheet for sealing such documents.
- (4) Courtesy Copies of Exhibits Required. Each party shall submit a courtesy copy of their exhibits and exhibit list in a tabbed binder to Superior Court Administration by 12:00 noon one court day before trial.
- (5) Coordination and/or Stipulation by the Parties. The parties are encouraged but not required to confer in advance about exhibits, including to reduce duplication in exhibits being marked for identification, and to create a joint exhibit list with consecutive numbering if desired. If the parties create a joint exhibit list with consecutive numbering, they need not use the pre-assigned exhibit numbers addressed in part (b) above. If the parties stipulate to the admissibility of exhibits, they shall do so in writing or on the record the first day of trial.
- (6) Master Exhibit List. The Clerk will circulate by email to all attorneys and self-represented parties the master exhibit list by 8:30a.m. on the morning of the first day of trial. The Clerk will circulate by email the updated exhibit list to all attorneys and self-represented parties each successive morning prior to trial resuming for the day.
- (7) Exchange of Exhibits. Parties shall exchange all documentary exhibits other than those intended solely for impeachment or rebuttal by 12:00noon two court days before trial. - (8) Return or Destruction of Exhibits by Stipulation and Court Order. When judgment in a civil case shall become final after an appeal or upon judgment or dismissal, or upon filing a satisfaction of judgment, the Clerk, on stipulation of the parties, shall return all exhibits and unopened depositions or destroy them, as agreed by the respective party offering the exhibit. The court shall enter an order accordingly.
- (9) Destruction of Exhibits When No Action Taken. Following the expiration of 90 days after the final disposition of a civil cause, if parties have not otherwise stipulated to the return or destruction of their exhibits, all exhibits will be destroyed without further notice to the parties or order of the Court.

- (10) Records in Administrative Appeals. Records of proceedings and exhibits filed as the record in an appeal of any administrative hearing shall be presumed to be exhibits to the file in the superior court. Any video or audio recording shall have a transcript filed in addition to the video or audio recording.
- (11) Electronic Exhibits. Digital/electronic information (i.e., video or audio files—not electronic copies of documents) offered as exhibits must be submitted on a clean/empty flash drive used only for this purpose, with only one file or item per device. Both the device and the file must be clearly marked using the same identifying information as listed on the exhibit list prepared by the offering party. (This rule relates to the submission of the exhibit, not the playing of the file, which must be addressed with Court Administration.)

(n) Video Testimony by Witnesses. The Court shall presumptively allow live video testimony by all witnesses in civil evidentiary hearings/trials other than jury trials. A party objecting to video testimony must make a written motion establishing good cause why live video testimony shall not be allowed and must have such motion considered prior to the hearing/trial. The Courtroom will join the remote session for all hearings unless otherwise ordered by the Court in an individual case or pursuant to an exception below. The Court's official remote hearing platform is the only way to appear remotely for a hearing. The Courtroom remains physically open to the parties, counsel, and the public in addition to remote attendance, unless expressly ordered by the Court. Exceptions: (1) for civil protection orders, the remote hearing information is not posted on the Court's website and will be provided by Superior Court Administration to the parties, advocates and counsel, and to members of the public upon request; and (2) the Court does not utilize a public Teams link for jury trials due to the risk that someone could unmute themselves and say something to taint the jury (the Courtroom remains physically open to the public to attend and observe).

Likewise, any party choosing to appear for trial remotely must ensure that they can share exhibits remotely with the Court and witnesses, through Teams.

(5) Prohibition on Recording. The public is prohibited from recording or broadcasting any remote proceeding. An official recording of an open proceeding may be obtained from the Clerk's Office subject to the Clerk's fee schedule. Members of the media must ask to record the audio or video of a remote proceeding, but such recording is presumptively allowed, consistent with GR 16 related to media recording of an in-person proceeding.

(t) Signature by Judicial Officer. Whenever an order, judgment, notification or other document requires the signature of a judicial officer, use of a faxed or scanned signature, an electronic signature as defined by RCW 1.80.010, or the judicial officer's signature stamp affixed by Superior Court Administration or Superior Court Clerk staff with written authorization shall have the same force and effect as an original handwritten signature.

(u) Distribution of Decisions by Superior Court Administration.

Anytime a party or attorney has provided an e-mail address to the Court, whether in a notice of appearance, the signature block of a pleading, by a direct e-mail communication to the Superior Court Administration staff agreeing to receive documents by e-mail, by e-filing with the Clerk, or by providing the Judge on the record with an e-mail address at which to receive documents, the Court will send the decision(s) by e-mail. Superior Court Administration will file a certification as to how the decision(s) were distributed. If no e-mail or mailing address has been provided for a self-represented party, the Court will not be able to send the decision(s) to you and will file a certification attesting accordingly.

(v) Ex Parte Presentation by Superior Court Administration. An attorney, guardian ad litem, or court visitor who has been appointed by Superior Court at the expense of San Juan County may submit documents or agreed orders for ex parte consideration by the Judge directly to Superior Court Administration without paying an ex parte fee (this is not intended to apply to public defenders, who may submit ex parte matters through the Clerk's office without a fee).

In addition, the motion for temporary orders and show cause order shall contain the following language: "At the hearing, the court will consider written sworn affidavits or declarations under penalty of perjury. Oral testimony may not be allowed. If you wish to respond, prior to the hearing you must: (1) file your documents with the court; (2) provide a copy of those documents to the judge; (3) serve the other party's attorney with copies of your documents (or have the other party served if that party does not have an attorney); and (4) complete your filing and service of documents within the time period required by the local court rules in effect in your county. If you need more information, you are advised to consult an attorney or a courthouse facilitator.

FAILURE TO APPEAR MAY RESULT IN A TEMPORARY ORDER BEING ENTERED BY THE COURT THAT GRANTS THE RELIEF REQUESTED IN THE MOTION WITHOUT FURTHER NOTICE."

(3) Courtesy Copies. Courtesy copies shall be delivered to the assigned judge, pursuant to LCR 8.

(4) Evidence on Motions. Hearings with respect to all temporary orders shall be held and determined only upon the pleadings, affidavits or declarations, and other papers filed, unless the court directs otherwise. Parties are encouraged to limit declarations in support of and in opposition to motions to specific factual issues that are critical to the Court's determination and to omit or severely limit declarations that provide only general statements as to the parties' character or parenting. The Court reserves the right to limit submissions by page number where filings do not adhere to these principles.

(c) Filing of Parties' Financial Declarations and Verified Statement of Assets and Liabilities.

At least sixty (60) days prior to trial, each party shall serve on the opposing party:

(1) A Financial Declaration, using (FL All Family 131), in all cases involving a request for child support, maintenance or attorney's fees. The Declaration shall also be filed with the court;

(2) A Verified Statement of Assets and Liabilities, including both marital and separate assets and liabilities of any kind, in the form set forth in Appendix B, in any case involving the division of assets and/or debts. The Verified Statement of Assets and Liabilities shall not be filed with the court; and

(3) Each party shall then file with the court a Declaration of Mailing, attesting that the Financial Declaration and Verified Statement of Assets and Liabilities has been provided to the other party. All parties have a duty to supplement the financial information when additional information becomes available.

(d) Self-Represented Parties – Review of Parenting Plans and Child Support Orders. In any action, including modification proceedings, in which the residential care or child support of a minor child or children is at issue and in which none of the parties are represented by counsel, any proposed parenting plan or residential schedule and any proposed child support documents, including the child support schedule worksheet, shall first be reviewed, approved as to form and initialed by the courthouse facilitator or by an attorney acting as a third-party neutral in accordance with RPC 2.4. Provided, however, this requirement shall not apply to a proposed temporary parenting plan or residential schedule in cases where there has been a recent and substantial change in circumstances that has resulted in a serious and imminent threat to the health, safety or welfare of the child(ren).

(e) Judicial Information System Background Checks. Prior to presenting a permanent parenting plan or residential schedule to the court for approval, the party or parties shall comply with RCW 26.09.182 by submitting a completed Judicial Information System (JIS) Background Check form to the San Juan County Clerk. Such request shall include the names and dates of birth of all persons residing in each residence and must be submitted no fewer than 5 days prior to the date of presentation of the final parenting plan. Upon receipt of a completed JIS Background Check form, the Clerk shall complete a search of the Judicial Information System for the existence of any information and proceedings relevant to the placement of the child. This search shall be performed no more than 10 days prior to the proposed date of presentation of the permanent parenting plan. The results of such search shall be available to the judicial officer presiding over the entry of the permanent parenting plan at least 2 court days prior to the proposed presentation date. Per Chapter 2.28 RCW (as amended by SHB 1617, Laws of 2015), if the Court relies upon information in the results of the search in rendering a decision, a copy of the results and the JIS Background Check form must be filed as a confidential document, within the court file, with any confidential contact information such as addresses, phone numbers, or other information that might disclose the location or whereabouts of any person redacted from the document or documents. In the event the Court does not rely upon information in the results of the search, the JIS Background Check form and the results of the search shall be destroyed. JIS Background Check form is attached as Appendix I.

(f) Trial Briefs and Required Documents. (See also LCR 39 and 43 regarding Exhibits and Witnesses)

(1) Trial Brief or Memorandum. In all contested family law trials, each party shall prepare a trial brief or memorandum of authorities containing the legal issues involved and the authorities supporting same.

(2) Other Required Documents. In addition to the above, in all contested trials in family law matters, each party shall provide the court with the following:

(i) A written pretrial information form indicating a proposed division of assets and liabilities, using the form set forth in Appendix H.

(ii) If children are involved, a proposed parenting plan and child support worksheets.

(3) Time. By noon two (2) court days prior to the date set for commencement of trial, all required documents shall be filed with the Clerk, copies served on opposing counsel or a self-represented party, and courtesy copies provided to the assigned judge.

[Adopted Effective September 1, 2021; Amended Effective September 1, 2022]

LCR 91. FINALIZATION OF DIVORCE/DISSOLUTION/SEPARATION BY AGREEMENT

(a) Jurisdictional Testimony. When final documents are entered under RCW 26.09 by joinder, agreement, or default, the parties are required to present jurisdictional testimony. The parties may note entry of final documents by joinder, agreement, or default, including the required jurisdictional testimony, on the regular Civil Law and Motion Calendar. Only one party is required to appear in order to provide the required jurisdictional testimony.

(b) Jurisdictional Declaration in Lieu of Testimony. If a decree is entered under RCW 26.09 by joinder, agreement, or default, the parties may elect to present jurisdictional testimony pursuant to a "Request for Entry of Decree and Declaration of Jurisdictional Facts," using the form set forth in Appendix

G, in lieu of a party's testimony by appearance in court. Neither party need be represented by counsel in order to submit a Request for Entry of Decree and Declaration or Jurisdictional Facts to support entry of final documents. If the Request for Entry of Decree and Declaration of Jurisdictional Facts form is used, the parties may present the final documents for entry ex parte rather than appearing in Court.

[Adopted Effective September 1, 2021]

LCR 92. PARENTING SEMINARS

(a) Applicable Cases. This rule shall apply to all cases under Chapters 26.09, 26.26, and 11.130 (minor guardianships) RCW which require a parenting plan or residential schedule for minor children, including major modifications and paternity actions in which paternity has been established.

(b) Mandatory Attendance. Except as provided in Section (f) below, within ninety (90) days of filing an appearance, answer or other responsive pleading in this action, all parties shall attend a court-approved parent education seminar on the effects of family transitions on children, unless the parties have previously attended such a course.

(c) Certificate of Completion. Upon completion of the seminar, each party shall file with the court the seminar completion certificate provided by the sponsoring agency or provider. Additionally, a copy of the certificate of completion shall be provided to the judge at presentation of final documents.

(d) Fees. Each party attending a seminar shall pay a fee charged by the approved provider and authorized by the court.

(e) Seminar Providers. The court shall establish standards for parenting seminars and shall approve seminar providers. A list of approved parenting seminars shall be available from the Superior Court Administrator, Court Facilitator, and County Clerk. If a parenting seminar is not included on the list, then the court, upon proper motion, may allow other seminars to fulfill this requirement on a case-by-case basis.

(f) Waiver/Special Consideration.

Pursuant to RCW 26.12.172:

(1) In no case shall opposing parties be required to attend a parenting seminar together; and

(2) Upon a showing of domestic violence or abuse which would not require mutual decision-making, pursuant to RCW 26.09.191, or if the court determines that attendance at a seminar is not in the children's best interest, the court shall either waive the requirement of completion of the seminar or allow participation in an alternative parenting seminar if available; and

(3) The Court may otherwise waive the requirement upon a showing of good cause.

(g) Exchange of Parenting Plans. At least sixty (60) days prior to trial, each party shall provide the other parent with a Proposed Parenting Plan, if they have not already done so.

(h) Failure to Comply. Willful refusal to participate in a parenting seminar or willful delay in completing the parenting seminar may result in a finding of contempt and imposition of sanctions. The Court may decline to enter finalization documents until both parents have completed the seminar. [See Order to Show Cause Re: Parenting Class in Appendix F.]

[Adopted Effective September 1, 2021]

LCR 93. MANDATORY MEDIATION

(a) Mediation in Contested Cases. Except as provided in Section (b) below, in all cases described in LCR 89(a) having unresolved issues, all parties shall in good faith engage in mediation in an effort to resolve the case. In cases where parenting issues exist, the mediation shall not occur until both parties have completed the parenting seminar required in LCR 92. Mediation shall be completed at least sixty (60) days prior to the scheduled trial date.

(b) When Mediation is Not Required. Mediation shall not be required as provided in Section (a) in the following cases:

(1) For good cause shown upon motion and approval by the court; or

(2) Where a domestic violence restraining order or protection order (excluding ex parte orders) involving the parties has been entered by a court at any time within the previous twelve (12) months;

(3) Where a domestic violence no contact order exists pursuant to RCW 10.99;

(4) Where the court upon motion finds that domestic abuse has occurred between the parties and that such abuse would interfere with arm's-length mediation. Notwithstanding the foregoing, either party may by motion seek a court order requiring mandatory mediation in a case where it would not be required as set forth in (b)(2), (b)(3) or (b)(4) above if the moving party believes that the parties would be able to mediate their dispute at arm's-length under the particular circumstances of the case.

(c) Settlement Conference. If, after mediation in good faith or where mediation is not required, there remain unresolved issues, the parties may participate in a settlement conference, pursuant to LCR 16(d).

(d) Effect on Court Proceedings. Mediation does not stay or otherwise affect the rights and duties of the parties established by statute, court rule, or court order. The court may enter temporary orders and the parties may conduct discovery prior to or during the mediation process.

(e) Cost of Mediation. Mediators shall be paid by the parties in accordance with the agreement of the parties, or in the absence of agreement, as determined by the Court.

(f) Responsibility for Compliance. The parties shall be responsible for arranging for and completing all mediation requirements established under this rule.

(g) Failure to Comply. Willful refusal to participate in mediation or willful delay in completing mediation may result in a finding of contempt and imposition of sanctions.

(h) Identity of Mediators. The Court does not approve of or recommend specific mediators. Attorneys licensed in the State of Washington who are engaged in an active practice that includes family law and retired Washington Superior Court Judges/Commissioners are presumed qualified to serve as a mediator in matters listed in LCR 89(a).

(i) Selection of Mediator; Right of Mediator to Decline. The parties may either agree to a mediator or the Court shall appoint a mediator upon the motion of either party. A mediator has the right to decline to serve in a particular case. If a mediator declines to serve, the parties shall select a different mediator or move the court to do so.

(j) Authority of Mediator. The mediator has the authority to determine the time, place, manner, and duration of mediation. In appropriate cases, the mediator shall have the authority to terminate the mediation prior to completion.

(k) Attendance at Mediation. The parties shall personally attend all mediation sessions, unless the mediator permits telephonic or other attendance. The mediator shall have the authority to require other persons to attend.

(l) Declaration of Completion. Within seven (7) days of completion of mediation, a declaration that mediation has been completed shall be filed with the court by the mediator. The mediator shall advise counsel and the parties of the results of mediation in writing. The mediator shall advise the court only whether an agreement has been reached on some or all of the issues.

(m) Confidentiality. The work product of the mediator and all communications during the mediation shall be privileged and confidential and not subject to compulsory disclosure. The mediator shall not appear to testify in any court proceedings. See RCW 5.60.070.

[Adopted Effective September 1, 2021; Amended Effective September 1, 2023]

LCR 94. GUARDIANS AD LITEM

[See Superior Court Guardian ad Litem Rules (GALR) for general responsibilities of guardians ad litem.]

(a) Appointments of Guardian ad Litem. All guardians ad litem shall be appointed as set forth in the policies and procedures for guardians ad litem, approved by the judges and maintained by the Superior Court Administrator's Office.

(b) Payment of Guardian ad Litem's Fee. When a parent makes a motion for appointment of a guardian ad litem they shall specifically assert how the guardian ad litem's fee should be paid. The Court may rely on child support worksheets entered by the Court to establish the percentages of the parents' contributions to the guardian ad litem's fee. If the Court has not yet entered child support worksheets, then both parents shall file financial declarations and proof of income to assist the Court in determining their respective abilities to pay the cost of the guardian ad litem. San Juan County may pay the cost of a guardian ad litem consistent with RCW 26.12.175(1)(d) if both parents are indigent as defined by General Rule 34, subject to the availability of funds appropriated to Superior Court for the appointment of guardians ad litem. However, if the Court orders the guardian ad litem's fee to be paid by San Juan County, the Court will only appoint guardians ad litem who have agreed to accept the county pay rate.

(c) Grievance Procedures.

(1) Submission of Complaints. All complaints made by or against guardians ad litem shall be in writing and shall be submitted to the Superior Court Administrator. All complaints must bear the signature, name and address of the person filing the complaint.

(2) Review of Complaint. Upon receipt of a written complaint, the Superior Court Administrator shall refer the complaint to the judge for review.

(3) Findings and Action of Complaint. Upon review of the complaint, the judge shall either:

(A) Make a finding that the complaint is with regard to a case then pending in the court and decline to review the complaint and so inform the complainant. In such instances, the judge shall advise the complainant that the complaint may only be addressed in the context of the case at bar, either by seeking the removal of the guardian ad litem or by contesting the information or recommendation contained in the guardian ad litem's report or testimony; or

(B) Make a finding that the complaint has no merit on its face, and decline to review the complaint and so inform the complainant; or

(C) Make a finding that the complaint appears to have merit and request a written response from the guardian ad litem or other person against whom the complaint is brought within ten (10) business days, detailing the specific issues in the complaint to which the judge desires a response. The judge shall provide the guardian ad litem or other person against whom the complaint is brought with a copy of the original complaint. In considering whether any complaint against a guardian ad litem has merit, the judge shall consider whether the complaint alleges the guardian ad litem has (i) violated a code of conduct, (ii) misrepresented his or her qualifications to serve as a guardian ad litem, (iii) breached the confidentiality of the parties, (iv) falsified information in a report to the court or in testimony before the court, (v) failed, when required, to report abuse of a child, (vi) communicated with a judicial officer ex parte concerning a case for which he or she is serving as guardian ad litem, (vii) violated state or local laws or court rules, or (viii) taken or failed to take any other action which would reasonably place the suitability of the person to serve as a guardian ad litem in question.

(4) Response and Findings on Complaint. Upon receipt of a written response to a complaint, the judge shall make a finding as to each of the specific issues in the complaint to which the judge desires a response, as delineated in the judge's letter to the person against whom the complaint is brought. Such findings shall state that either there is no merit to the issue based upon the response or that there is merit to the issue.

(5) Forms of Discipline. The judge shall have the authority to issue a written admonition or a written reprimand, refer the guardian ad litem (if the complaint is against a guardian ad litem) to additional training, or suspend or remove the guardian ad litem from the registry. In considering an appropriate form of discipline, the judge shall take into consideration any prior complaints that resulted in an admonition, reprimand, referral to training, or suspension or removal from the registry. If the guardian ad litem against whom the discipline is directed is listed on more than one registry, the suspension or removal may apply to each registry the guardian ad litem is listed on, at the discretion of the judge.

(6) Notice to Complainant and Person Against Whom Complaint is Brought. The complainant and the person against whom the complaint is brought shall be notified in writing of the judge's decision following receipt of the response to the complaint.

(7) Confidentiality. A complaint shall be deemed confidential for all purposes unless the judge reviewing the complaint has determined that the complaint has merit. Any record of complaints filed which are not deemed by the judge to have merit shall be confidential, and shall not be disclosed except by court order, upon good cause shown, after the person against whom the complaint was brought has been given notice and an opportunity to be heard.

(8) Complaint Processing Standards. Complaints shall be resolved within twenty-five (25) days of the date of receipt of the written complaint if a case is pending. Complaints shall be resolved within sixty (60) days of the date of receipt of the written complaint if the complaint is filed after the conclusion of a case.

(9) Removal from Registry. When a guardian ad litem is removed from the court's registry pursuant to the disposition of a grievance hereunder, the Superior Court Administrator shall send a notice of such removal to the Administrative Office of the Courts. When the Superior Court Administrator receives notice from the Administrative Office of the Courts that a guardian ad litem on the court's registry has been removed from the registry of any other Washington superior court, the Superior Court Administrator shall advise the judge of such removal.

[Adopted Effective September 1, 2021; Amended September 1, 2024]

LCR 95. CONVERTING SEALED PARENTAGE CASES TO OPEN CASES REGARDING PARENTING AND SUPPORT

Parentage cases are required to be filed as a confidential case type 5. However, pursuant to RCW 26.26A.500, the final order in a proceeding to determine parentage under RCW 26.26A.400 through .515 is available for public inspection. The Judgment and Order Determining Parentage shall be the final order in the confidential/sealed case type 5. Except as otherwise provided by applicable court rules or Court order, records entered in a proceeding under RCW Ch. 26.26A after the entry of a final order determining parentage are publicly accessible.

Therefore, after a final order determining parentage is entered, the County Clerk is directed to issue a new public cause number to the case. The final order determining parentage shall be filed in the original, confidential cause number as well as in the new, public cause number. Any documents filed in the proceeding after the final order determining parentage shall be filed in the new, open cause number. No fee shall be charged for creating the new cause number and associated file.

[Adopted Effective September 1, 2024]

14. TRUST AND ESTATES (Rule 96)

LCR 96. TRUST AND ESTATE DISPUTE RESOLUTION ACT (TEDRA)

- (a) Applicability. This rule shall apply to all judicial proceedings under RCW 11.96A.090.
- (b) Hearings. The Clerk will not unilaterally note any TEDRA hearings. Parties shall note all hearings consistent with LCR 6 and CR 56 and at least 20 days after filing and service of the TEDRA petition. If a hearing is reasonably anticipated to take fifteen minutes or less, it may be noted on the Civil Law and Motion Calendar. If a hearing is reasonably anticipated to take longer than fifteen minutes, it shall be specially set pursuant to LCR 8(g). The parties must clearly indicate in their petition and/or answer if they do not intend for the initial hearing to be a hearing on the merits to resolve all issues of fact and law. If an initial hearing is not intended to resolve all issues of fact and law, the issues to be addressed at said hearing shall be identified clearly in the briefing. Trials shall be scheduled through filing a note for trial assignment pursuant to LCR 40.

[Adopted Effective September 1, 2021]

LCR 97. CONVERTING GUARDIANSHIPS FROM RCW CH. 11.88 to RCW CH. 11.130

- (a) Applicability. This rule shall apply to all adult guardianships created under RCW Ch. 11.88 that were in existence as of January 1, 2022, unless the Court specifically finds under RCW 11.130.910 that applying RCW Ch. 11.130 would substantially interfere with the effective conduct of the proceeding or prejudice the rights of a party. The requirements contained in this rule only apply for the first periodic reporting after January 1, 2022. Thereafter, the Guardian/Conservator shall follow the applicable statute(s), Washington pattern forms, and Court orders.
- (b) Conversion. Due to a significant change in the law, guardianships that originated under RCW Ch. 11.88 now must comply with the new Uniform Guardianship, Conservatorship, and Other Protective Arrangements Act, RCW Ch. 11.130. The Court will consider converting your guardianship at the first periodic review hearing after January 1, 2022 on the Court's own motion in an order in substantially the form of Appendix N.

(c) Documents to File for Review. The following documents must be filed and served on all persons entitled to notice for your first periodic review following January 1, 2022:

16. UNLAWFUL DETAINER (Rules 98-100)

LCR 98. WHO IS ENTITLED TO BRING OR MAINTAIN THE ACTION. An owner, lessor, or duly appointed attorney in fact (through a power of attorney) may bring an action for unlawful detainer. Property managers or agents who are not appointed through a power of attorney may not appear in a representative capacity on behalf of an owner/lessor.

[Adopted Effective September 1, 2022]

LCR 99. ALL COMPLAINTS FOR UNLAWFUL DETAINER MUST INCLUDE. Complaints for unlawful detainer, regardless of which statute the action is brought under unless specifically noted, must include the following:

(a) Rental Agreement. A true and correct copy of the rental agreement or lease upon which the tenancy is based, if one exists, must be attached to the Complaint.

(b) Power of Attorney. The Power of Attorney appointing an Attorney in Fact with authority over the real property at issue must be attached to the Complaint.

(c) Just Cause Exception. If the action is brought under the Residential Landlord Tenant Act, RCW Ch. 59.18, and is based upon any reason other than exclusively nonpayment of rent, the plaintiff must specifically plead the basis under RCW 59.18.650 that permits ending the residential tenancy.

(d) Subsidy. If the real property or housing unit at issue is subsidized by the federal government, state government, or a tribe, the Complaint must include the name of the program and the nature of the applicable subsidy.

(e) Notices. Copies of all notices required under RCW Ch. 59.12 and any notice required under a standing order of this Court, as well as proof of service, mailing, or posting, must be attached to the Complaint.

[Adopted Effective September 1, 2022]

LCR 100. OBTAINING A WRIT OF RESTITUTION UNDER THE RESIDENTIAL LANDLORD TENANT ACT. A plaintiff in an action brought under the Residential Landlord Tenant Act, RCW Ch. 59.18, seeking a writ of restitution must either schedule the matter for trial or obtain an order to show cause. The order to show cause must notify the defendant that failure to attend may result in a default judgment and writ of restitution. The Court will not issue an order of default or a writ of restitution in an action under the Residential Landlord Tenant Act until the trial or show cause hearing has occurred.

[Adopted Effective September 1, 2022]

17. CIVIL PROTECTION ORDERS (Rules 101 - 104)

LCR 101. REQUESTS FOR EX PARTE TEMPORARY PROTECTION ORDERS.

(a) Without a Hearing. The Court considers ex parte requests for temporary protection orders in chambers and without a hearing unless a hearing specifically is requested by the Petitioner or if a hearing is requested by the Court, including because additional information is deemed necessary.

(b) Timing. The Court will consider ex parte requests for temporary protection orders under RCW 7.105.305 as soon as possible after the related petition is submitted to the Clerk's office for filing, and by the end of the same day, as long as the petition and supporting documents are filed by 4:00p.m. If a petition for a civil protection order is filed after 4:00p.m., the Court reserves the right to consider any related request for an ex parte temporary protection order the following Court day.

[Adopted Effective September 1, 2023]

LCR 102. HEARING ON REQUEST FOR FULL PROTECTION ORDER.

(a) Scheduling. The Court schedules the hearing on a request for a full protection order. Such hearings may be set on the standing protection order calendar on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday mornings starting at 9:00a.m., or they may be specially set any other time, within 14 days of the filing of a petition.

(b) Presentation of Documentary Evidence. Civil protection order proceedings are special proceedings governed by RCW Ch. 7.105. They take place on an expedited timeline and parties need not follow LCR 6(d) with regard to filings in opposition to or in support of a petition. E-mail service as provided by LCR 5(l) is permitted. The parties may file sworn declarations up until the time set for hearing. However, the parties must serve any declaration on the opposing party and submit a courtesy copy for the Court consistent with the Court's LCRs. Parties should not assume that the opposing party will be present in person in the courtroom, and must arrange service prior to the hearing via e-mail or hand delivery. If a declaration is not filed until the hearing or shortly before, the Court reserves the right to delay the start of the hearing to ensure that the Judge and the opposing party have sufficient time to review the contents. The parties also may present documentary exhibits at the hearing, provided that they provide a courtesy copy to the Court and serve the opposing party with a copy by e-mail or hand delivery prior to the hearing. Providing hard copies at the hearing is not sufficient because the opposing party may appear by video or telephone. If copies of exhibits are not provided to the opposing party in advance, the exhibits may not be admitted or the hearing may be delayed or rescheduled.

(c) Testimony. Testimony by the parties will be permitted, if requested, subject to time constraints. The parties do not have a right to present live testimony by witnesses other than the parties, but may request the ability to do so at the hearing.

[Adopted Effective September 1, 2023; September 1, 2024]

LCR 103. HEARING ON MOTION FOR RENEWAL.

(a) Scheduling a hearing before expiration of the existing order. If a motion for renewal is filed with sufficient time to schedule the related hearing prior to the expiration of the existing protection order, then the Petitioner may note the motion for renewal for hearing rather than asking the Court to enter an order scheduling the hearing; provided, however, that the Petitioner must obtain a hearing date from the Superior Court Administrator. Alternatively, the Petitioner may submit ex parte a proposed order setting the motion for renewal for hearing (mandatory form PO 054), which the Court will enter, scheduling the hearing as permitted by the Court's calendar.

(b) Scheduling a hearing after expiration of the existing order. If a motion for renewal is not filed with sufficient time to schedule the related hearing prior to the expiration of the existing order, then the Petitioner shall submit a proposed order for the Court's entry (mandatory form PO 054), which will schedule the hearing as permitted by the Court's calendar and will extend the existing order through that hearing.

[Adopted Effective September 1, 2023]

LCR 104. APPOINTMENT OF COUNSEL.

(a) Appointment of Counsel. Pursuant to RCW 7.105.240, petitioners may request appointment of counsel where the respondent is represented by counsel subject to the availability of funds appropriated to Superior Court for this purpose. The San Juan County Superior Court and District Court jointly maintain a policy for appointment of counsel in protection order cases as well as a registry of attorneys who have contracted with the County to be appointed in these cases. In order to responsibly utilize the limited funds available, the Court only appoints counsel to Petitioners who qualify as indigent. A petitioner asking for appointment of counsel shall use the motion and order forms available on the Superior Court website and shall screen with the San Juan County Public Defender Screener to determine financial qualification, attaching a certification from the screener to the motion.

18. INFORMAL FAMILY LAW TRIALS (IFLT) (Rules 105-109)

[Adopted Effective September 1, 2023]

LCR 106. Election of IFLT.

All of the parties to the case must agree to proceed with an IFLT. The parties may select an IFLT at or before the readiness hearing (which is scheduled approximately 30 days before trial). Each party must file the "Trial Process Selection and Waiver" form, Family Law Mandatory Form 184, to formally elect the IFLT. That form is provided as Appendix O.

[Adopted Effective September 1, 2023]

LCR 107. Exhibits.

(a) Exhibits Permitted. Each party may submit up to five sworn declarations (limited to 20 pages total) from lay persons whom they otherwise would want to call as witnesses, and any other documentary exhibits that a party wants the Court to consider, including expert reports or written expert opinions. The parties are not limited in the total number of exhibits they may submit, only in the number of declarations. The Rules of Evidence do not apply. The Judge will determine the credibility and weight of the evidence that is offered.

(b) Mandatory Exhibits.

1. Financial Declaration: For any case involving financial issues, including division of assets or debts, child support, spousal maintenance, or requests for attorney fees, both parties must submit a financial declaration on the mandatory court form.

2. Child Support Worksheets and Proposed Child Support Order and Parenting Plan: For any case involving dependent children, each party must submit proposed child support worksheets, child support order, and proposed parenting plan on the mandatory court forms.

LCR 108. Expert Testimony.

(a) Party's Expert Witness. Either party may request that an expert who has submitted a report or written opinion testify at the IFLT by indicating an intention to have an expert witness testify on the Family Law Informal Trial Selection Form, if it is timely filed, and subject to the expert's availability. Expert testimony will be allowed to occur by video on the Court's remote platform, and the Court will allow the expert to testify when it is convenient for their schedule (within the dates set for trial).

(b) GAL or Parenting Evaluator. If the Court has appointed a GAL or parenting evaluator, the report will be admitted as an exhibit and the Court will read the GAL or parenting evaluator's report. The GAL or parenting evaluator will not testify unless one of the parties notes an intention to call the GAL or evaluator on the Family Law Informal Trial Selection Form. If that form is timely filed, and if the GAL or evaluator appears voluntarily or by subpoena, they will be questioned under oath as an expert witness as provided herein.

[Adopted Effective September 1, 2023]

LCR 109. Procedure During the IFLT.

(a) At the beginning of an IFLT, the Judge will ask each party to affirm that they understand the rules and procedures of the IFLT process, they are consenting to this process freely and voluntarily, and they have not been threatened or promised anything for agreeing to the IFLT process. Parties must affirm that they waive the right to appeal the Court's use of the IFLT process and the Court's admission of evidence that is not consistent with the Rules of Evidence or traditional court processes or other court rules.

- (b) The Judge will ask the parties (or their lawyers if represented by counsel) for a brief summary of the issues to be decided and the exhibits that they have submitted. The Petitioner will be asked to go first, and then the Respondent, followed by other parties, if applicable.
- (c) All exhibits are automatically admitted; neither party needs to offer or move for their admission. The Judge will give the exhibits the weight that they believe is appropriate.
- (d) Each party will be placed under oath to address the Judge regarding all issues in dispute. The Petitioner will go first, and then the Respondent, followed by other parties, if applicable. Parties represented by attorneys will not be questioned by their attorney. Each party will be permitted to speak, and the Judge will ask questions as deemed appropriate in order to obtain the evidence necessary to decide the issues between the parties pursuant to statute or court rule (for example, to analyze the criteria for determining a final parenting plan under RCW 26.09.187, if the parties have dependent, minor children). After the Judge has asked the party questions, the Judge will ask if the party wants to say anything else that was not addressed.
- (e) The parties may reference the exhibits in testifying if they choose to.
- (f) Neither party will cross examine the other party. However, after a party is done testifying, the Judge will ask the opposing party or their attorney whether there are additional areas that they would like the Judge to inquire about or whether there are specific questions that they would like to be asked. The Judge will then proceed to ask about those areas or issues if the Judge agrees that they are relevant to the determination of the issues before the Court at trial.
- (g) The Judge will ask the Respondent if there is anything that the Petitioner said that they specifically want to respond to. Likewise, after the Respondent testifies, the Judge will ask the Petitioner if there is anything else that they want to say in order to respond to the Respondent's testimony.
- (h) Following testimony by the parties, a testifying expert will be placed under oath and subjected to questioning by the party who retained the expert or their attorney, followed by the opposing party or their attorney, followed by the Judge, with additional questioning as deemed appropriate.
- (i) After all parties and any experts have testified, each party will be given an opportunity to make a legal argument, to communicate to the Judge how they believe the law should apply to the facts, and what outcome they are seeking. The parties are permitted to read prepared statements if they choose to. The parties are encouraged to refer to the exhibits as appropriate, and to divide their argument into the distinct issues before the Court, such as division of property and debts, parenting plan/residential schedule, and child support.
- (j) The Judge may put reasonable time limits on any person's testimony or argument.
- (k) The Judge reserves the right to modify these procedures in an individual case as justice and fundamental fairness require.
- (l) Following argument, the Judge may make its ruling, or may take the case under advisement to issue a written decision within 90 days.

If a defendant requests remote appearance at arraignment, that request should be made at the first reasonable opportunity, including at the arraignment hearing noted by the State, and the Court will exercise its discretion to determine whether remote appearance is acceptable, rescheduling the hearing if necessary to facilitate an appearance in person. Remote appearance for entry of a guilty plea requires agreement by the parties in addition to the approval of the Court.

(2) Remote Hearing Sessions. Superior Court Administration will schedule remote sessions for all hearings and will make connection information for such hearings available on the Superior Court website (with the exception of hearings for no contact orders, for which Microsoft Teams hearing information is not publicly available and will be provided by Superior Court Administration upon request). The Courtroom will join the remote hearing session for all hearings unless otherwise ordered by the Court in an individual case. (e) Trial Brief or Memorandum. In criminal trials with contested legal or evidentiary issues, each party shall prepare a trial brief or memorandum of authorities containing the issues involved and the authorities supporting same and provide the same to the Clerk, opposing counsel or a self-represented party, and the judge by noon two (2) days prior to the date set for commencement of trial. The parties shall endeavor to foresee likely evidentiary issues based on information available to the parties in order to brief such issues, and shall schedule pretrial motions regarding the same if possible.

(f) Trial Exhibits.

(1) Numbering. The State as plaintiff shall be pre-assigned exhibit numbers 1-100 and the defendant shall be pre-assigned numbers 101-200 unless otherwise stipulated by the parties or ordered by the Court.

- (2) Submission to Clerk for Marking and With Exhibit List. Unless a party intends to offer fewer than ten (10) documentary exhibits in their case in chief, counsel for each party should present their original documentary exhibits for their case in chief (not including exhibits that may be offered for impeachment or in rebuttal) to the Clerk by 12:00 noon one court day before trial for marking in the following format: in hard copy; unbound and without hole punches; with slip sheets between each exhibit indicating the intended exhibit number. Each set of exhibits should be submitted to the Clerk with an exhibit list in hard copy and electronic Word version prepared by the submitting party, on the Clerk's form, as available on the Clerk's webpage, or on request, as provided in Appendix E. The party should include pre-assigned numbers as described above, as well as the description of the exhibit that party intends the Clerk to use on the master exhibit list. Please consider when preparing exhibits that the Clerk will mark them in the lower right corner with a 1" by 3" label.
- (3) Courtesy Copies of Exhibits Required. Counsel for each party shall provide a courtesy copy of each documentary exhibit to the Judge at or before the time an exhibit is offered for admission.
- (4) Coordination and/or Stipulation by the Parties. The Court encourages counsel to raise potential issues regarding management of trial exhibits at the pretrial conference or by motion as deemed appropriate by the parties. The parties may confer in advance about exhibits, including to reduce duplication in exhibits being marked for identification, and to create a joint exhibit list with consecutive numbering if desired. If the parties create a joint exhibit list with consecutive numbering, they need not use the pre-assigned exhibit numbers. If the parties stipulate to the admissibility of exhibits, they shall do so in writing or on the record the first day of trial.
- (5) Master Exhibit List. The Clerk will circulate by email to counsel the master exhibit list by 8:30a.m. on the morning of the first day of trial. The Clerk will circulate by email the updated exhibit list each successive morning prior to trial resuming for the day.

Both the device and the file must be clearly marked using the same identifying information as listed on the exhibit list prepared by the offering party. (This rule relates to the submission of the exhibit, not the playing of the file, which must be addressed with Court Administration.)

(g) Remote Viewing of Jury Trial. The Court will not provide a public Teams link for remote observation of jury trials due to the risk that someone could unmute and say something to taint the jury. The Courtroom remains physically open to the public for observation of all proceedings unless otherwise ordered in a specific case.

LJuCR 11.8 REMOTE APPEARANCES IN JUVENILE OFFENDER MATTERS

(1) When Permitted. Arraignments, detention/release hearings, probation bond hearings, omnibus, readiness and trial settings, and review hearings may be conducted by video on the Court's official remote hearing platform so long as: (a) the respondent, counsel, and the Judge may all see and hear each other at all times; (b) the hearing may be viewed on screen in the Superior Court Courtroom; and (c) the respondent and defense counsel have a means to communicate confidentially or respondent waives the right to communicate confidentially in an individual hearing. The parties, counsel and parents may appear by telephone or video via the Court's remote hearing platform for any other pretrial hearing at which the Court has authorized remote attendance. Remote attendance at show cause or violation hearings requires a written stipulation by the parties or order of the Court.

(2) Remote Hearing Sessions. Superior Court Administration will schedule remote sessions for all hearings and will make connection information for such hearings available on the Superior Court website (with the exception of hearings for no contact orders, for which Microsoft Teams hearing information is not publicly available and will be provided by the Superior Court Administrator only to the parties and counsel). The Courtroom will join the remote hearing session for all hearings unless otherwise ordered by the Court in an individual case. The Court's official remote hearing platform is the only way to appear remotely for a hearing. The Courtroom remains physically open to the parties, counsel, and the public in addition to remote attendance, unless expressly ordered by the Court.

(3) Remote Hearing Procedures. Any person appearing for a hearing remotely shall follow the Court's Remote Appearance Procedures posted on the San Juan County Superior Court website, which may be amended from time to time. In all cases, persons appearing remotely shall: (a) appear in a location as quiet as possible and with background that is without distractions and appropriate for Court; (b) appear in attire appropriate for the Court setting; (c) mute your device until your cases is called, and during their hearing except when it is your turn to speak or as directed by the Judge; and (d) treat all persons present with the same respect and decorum as you would if you were physically present in the Courtroom.

Generally, assets having an individual value of more than $500 should be listed separately. Any property subject to an encumbrance or security interest should disclose the nature of such security interest, the unpaid balance owing at the time of trial and the net fair market value of such asset after the deduction of such encumbrance.

The proposed property division should conclude with a list of liabilities to be assumed by each party, including, except as may be disclosed above, the name of the creditor, amount of the monthly payment, the unpaid balance on each such debt and the total amount of all such liabilities to be assumed by each party.

Deduction of the total amount of liabilities to be assumed by each party from the net total fair market value of the community property awarded to such party will constitute the net fair market values for your proposed property division. This should be followed by a list of separate property to be awarded to each spouse.

Please do not wear shorts, tank tops, loungewear, beach wear, or athletic wear. Additionally, please avoid clothing with graphics or messages on them. The judge reserves the right to ask people to change clothes or to turn their shirts inside out if their clothing is potentially disruptive or distracting to the proceeding. Hats are not allowed unless worn for religious or medical purposes. Out of respect for those with allergies, please refrain from wearing any strongly scented fragrances.

Attorney Attire:

Attorneys should wear professional attire appropriate for the dignity of the court setting. Attorneys should wear the same attire for video appearance that they would wear in the courtroom. While jackets are presumed to be part of such professional attire, they need not be worn when temperatures make doing so uncomfortable.

COURT DECORUM AND PRACTICE GUIDELINES

PREFACE

The pursuit of justice is a serious undertaking and conduct during the litigation process, both within and outside the courtroom, must at all times satisfy the appearance as well as the reality of fairness and equal treatment. Dignity, order and decorum are indispensable to the proper administration of justice.

A trial is an adversary proceeding, and lawyers must advocate for their clients' positions. However, conduct that may be characterized as discriminatory, abusive, or obstructive impedes the fundamental goal of resolving disputes rationally, peacefully and efficiently. Such conduct tends to delay and often to deny justice.

Attorneys are privileged to participate in the administration of justice in a unique way, and are responsible to their own consciences, to their clients, to one another, and to the public to conduct themselves in a manner which will facilitate, and never detract from, the administration of justice.

A trial is a truth-seeking process designed to resolve human and societal problems in a rational and efficient manner. A lawyer's conduct should be characterized at all times by personal courtesy and professional integrity in the fullest sense of those terms. A judge's conduct should be characterized at all times by courtesy, patience, and fairness toward all participants. The courts belong to the people of this state. The guidelines are intended to facilitate access to the courts for the fair resolution of disputes and should never be applied to deny access.

Application

The purpose of these guidelines is to provide lawyers, judges, and parties with a reasonable standard of conduct in judicial proceedings. However, these guidelines are not intended to homogenize conduct or remove individuality from the courtroom. To facilitate professional growth and foster voluntary compliance with these guidelines, the WSBA Court Congestion and Improvement Committee periodically review these guidelines. Comments are considered by the committee and changes are incorporated as needed.

All participants in judicial proceedings should voluntarily adhere to these guidelines. These guidelines shall not be used as a basis for litigation or for sanctions or penalties. Nothing in these guidelines supersedes or detracts from existing codes or rules of conduct or discipline or alters existing standards by which lawyer negligence may be determined.

COURT DECORUM

I. General Court Hearing Decorum

- A. Always be prompt.
- B. Stand when the judge enters or leaves the courtroom.
- C. Do not make personal attacks on opposing counsel.
- D. Do not interrupt. Wait your turn.
- E. Enhancing courtroom decorum is a cooperative venture among bench and bar. It is appropriate to call to the attention of opposing counsel any perceived violations of these guidelines out of the presence of the jury.
- F. After the court has ruled, ask the court's permission before arguing further.
- G. Advise clients and witnesses of the formalities of the court, the appropriate guidelines, and any rulings on motions in limine. Encourage their cooperation. This applies both to attorneys and to self-represented parties.

H. If there is a live microphone, remember not to confer with others or rustle papers near the microphone. With the importance of making an accurate court record, be mindful of speaking into the microphone in an audible and clear fashion.

I. Courtrooms equipped for recording may require special precautions, such as remaining near a microphone.

J. Treat everyone in the proceeding with fairness, consideration, and respect. Refrain from conduct that discriminates on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, creed, gender identity, age, disability, sexual orientation, or marital status.

II. General Trial Conduct

A. Offers of and requests for stipulations are appropriate to facilitate the presentation of a case, but should not be employed to communicate to the jury a party's willingness or unwillingness to stipulate.

B. During trial, maintain appropriate respect for witnesses, jurors, and opposing counsel, avoiding informality. Address adults by their titles or surnames unless permission has been given to use first names. Avoid referring to adults by biased and demeaning expressions or labels such as "girl," "gal," or "boy." Address jurors individually or by name only during voir dire.

C. Treat jurors with respect and dignity, avoiding fawning, flattery, or pretended solicitude. Suggestions regarding the comfort or convenience of jurors should generally be made to the court out of the jury's hearing.

D. During the opening statement and argument of opposing counsel, never inappropriately divert the attention of the court or the jury.

E. Avoid expressing an opinion to the jury about the testimony of a witness, a ruling of the court, or argument of counsel through exaggerated facial expressions or other contrived conduct.

F. When practical, give the court advance notice of any legal issue that is likely to be complex, difficult, and which you expect to require argument.

G. Do not argue the case in the opening statement.

H. Counsel should not express to the jury personal knowledge or personal opinions about the evidence.

I. Address your remarks to the court, not to opposing counsel except when extending necessary courtesies, e.g., thank you.

J. Only attorney, parties, court personnel, and witnesses, when called to the stand, are permitted within the bar of the courtroom, unless otherwise allowed by the court.

III. Examination of Witnesses

A. When examining a witness, avoid undue repetition of the witness' answer.

B. Make objections for evidentiary reasons without delivering a speech or guiding a witness. Recapitulate testimony only as needed to put an objection in context.

C. If a witness was on the stand at a recess or adjournment, have the witness ready to proceed when the court is resumed.

D. Attempt to anticipate witness scheduling problems and discuss them with opposing counsel and the court. Try to schedule witnesses in advance of trial.

IV. Exhibits and Documents

A. Pre-mark exhibits with the clerk for identification prior to trial where appropriate and in accordance with the applicable rules.

B. Return all exhibits to the clerk at each adjournment.

C. Whenever referring to an exhibit, identify the exhibit by its exhibit number.

Family Law Informal Trial Selection

Use this form if you want an Informal Trial instead of a Traditional Trial. You must file this form 30 days before the trial date (or trial setting if no trial date is scheduled).

Here are some of the differences between the 2 types of trials:

- In a Traditional Trial, both parties are allowed to call witnesses and to cross-examine the opposing witnesses. The Rules of Evidence apply.
- In an Informal Trial, the judge, not the parties, questions the witnesses. Other than the parties, only expert witnesses are allowed. The Rules of Evidence do not apply. Instead, the process follows General Rule 40.

I have reviewed the Two Kinds of Family Law Trial brochure attached to this form.

1. I want an Informal Trial. I am the (check one)

Petitioner Respondent

I understand that if the other party does not agree to an Informal Trial, we will have a Traditional Trial.

2. I understand than an Informal Trial works like this:

- Both parties will give a brief summary of the issues that need to be decided. Both parties will speak to the judge under oath about the issues in the case (examples: how to divide property and debt, parenting plan, child support, spousal support).
- Both parties will have an opportunity to respond to the other party's statement and explain how the law applies to their case.
- There is no cross examination. The judge may ask questions.
- Most of the time, the 2 people in the case are the only witnesses in an Informal Trial. Sometimes a party needs an expert witness (someone with special training and education) to give an opinion, which is allowed in informal trials. The parties or their lawyers may ask experts questions. The expert's report will be received as an exhibit.

- Non-expert witnesses are not allowed. Instead, each party may submit up to 5 declarations from other people with a maximum page count of 20 pages. Also, each party can submit any document or other evidence they want the judge to review.
- The judge will decide what credibility and weight to give documents, physical evidence, and testimony that is entered as evidence during the Informal Trial. The judge is not bound by the Rules of Evidence.
- The judge will follow the same law to decide the case, whether it is an Informal or Traditional Trial.

3. Expert witnesses (check one)

I do not want an evaluator or other expert witness to testify at my trial.

I want an evaluator (CASA, GAL or FCS) to be a witness at my trial.

I want another type of expert to testify at my trial. (Name) _____ has expertise in _____ and has information relevant to my case.

I have filed the report they prepared for my case.

4. I give up my right to a Traditional Trial

By agreeing to an Informal Trial, I agree to the following:

- Voluntary. My participation in an Informal Trial is strictly voluntary. No one can force me to agree to this process. I have not been threatened or promised anything for agreeing to an Informal Trial.
- Format. The normal question and answer format of trial will not be used. The judge may ask me questions about the case. The other party and I can both tell the judge anything we feel is relevant.
- Rules. The Rules of Evidence will not apply in this Informal Trial. I will follow the procedures of GR 40, the rule on Informal Family Law Trials.
- Evidence. Neither party will call any witnesses except for experts.
- No appeal of the process. I give up my right to appeal the judge's use of the Informal Family Law Trial process. I still have a right to appeal the final decision.

TWO KINDS OF FAMILY LAW TRIALS

Do you have a family law trial coming up? If you do, you have a choice to make.

There are two different kinds of family law trials in Family Court. A family law trial is about divorce, legal separation, parenting plans, relocation, or child support. The two types of trials are called an Informal Family Law Trial (Informal Trial) and a Traditional Trial. You decide which type of trial is best for you.

What are the differences between Informal Trials and Traditional Trials?

	Informal Trials	Traditional Trials
How formal is the trial?	Less formal	More formal
How easy is this type of trial for a person who does not have a lawyer?	Easier	Harder
What evidence does the judge consider?	The judge decides what is important. You can talk to the judge about things that may not be allowed under the Rules of Evidence, like conversations you had with people outside the courtroom (hearsay). You can bring sworn statements from people who support your case, as well as other evidence or documents.	The parties need to follow the Rules of Evidence and make formal objections if they want to stop the judge from considering evidence.
Who asks questions?	Usually, only the judge.	Mainly the parties or their lawyers, but the judge can also ask witnesses questions.
Can I talk directly to the judge?	Yes.	Not usually. You can usually only talk to the judge during opening and closing arguments, and the other party can object while you are talking to the judge.
Who are the witnesses in the case?	Usually only the parties in the case and the Guardian ad Litem, if there is one. You can ask the judge to allow other expert witnesses, like a doctor or counselor.	Whoever you or the other party lists as a witness before trial starts.
Can I ask the witnesses questions?	No. This means that the other party or their lawyer can't interrupt you when you talk to the judge.	Yes. This means that you can ask the witness to talk about what you think is important.

TWO KINDS OF FAMILY LAW TRIALS

What do I need to know about my trial?

ALL TRIALS

1. Decide what type of trial you want. It will be a Traditional Trial unless both parties agree to an Informal Trial.
2. Before trial starts, both parties must prepare and give to the clerk, judge, and the other party:
 - If this is a divorce case, a list of everything you and your spouse own and owe and explain how you want the court to divide these properties and debts.
 - If child support or spousal support are an issue: a Financial Declaration, the last six months of pay stubs, and your tax returns for the last two years (with schedules, W2, and/or 1099).
 - If there are children, a proposed parenting plan.
3. Before trial, each party must give the judge and the other party a copy of all of the documents and other evidence that you will give to the judge.
4. The judge will follow the same law to decide your case, whether you have an informal or formal trial.
5. After trial, the judge will tell one party to draft the final orders. The final, written orders must contain all of the decisions that the judge made after trial. The case is not over until the judge signs the final

INFORMAL TRIALS

6. Before trial, the judge will make sure the parties understand how the informal trial works and that the parties volunteer to have that kind of trial.
7. If there is a Guardian ad Litem (GAL), they will usually testify first.
8. The petitioner will speak to the judge under oath.
9. The judge asks questions. If there is a lawyer, they can ask the judge to ask about certain topics.
10. The respondent then speaks to the judge under oath.
11. The judge will review expert reports, if there are any, and may let experts testify.
12. The judge reviews evidence presented in court.
13. Each party can respond briefly to the other party.
14. Each party can explain to the judge about how the laws apply in the case.
15. The judge decides the case or sets another hearing for a decision.

TRADITIONAL TRIALS

6. Both parties make an opening statement, telling the judge about the case and how they think the judge should rule. The petitioner goes first.
7. The petitioner calls all of their witnesses. They ask the witnesses questions and may give the judge evidence. The respondent then asks the witnesses questions. The parties usually testify.
8. The respondent then calls their witnesses and presents evidence. The petitioner can question the respondent's witnesses too.
9. The judge can allow a witness to be questioned again.
10. The parties make closing argument. This summarizes the evidence, explains how the evidence means they should prevail, and tells the judge what is important.
11. The judge decides the case or sets a hearing for a decision.
